Copyright Infringement

Cameron Broadcasting respects the intellectual property rights of third parties, and complies with the terms of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) regarding such rights. By submitting any material or photographs through this Cameron Broadcasting Website, you are granting permission to have this material posted on this Cameron Broadcasting Website, and are representing that you are the rightful owner of the submitted material, and that no one else may claim rights to this material. Cameron Broadcasting reserves the right to remove access to infringing material. Such actions do not affect or modify any other rights Cameron Broadcasting may have under law or contract. You can find our procedures for providing notice of alleged copyright infringement here.

Procedure for Making Claim of Copyright Infringement

Cameron Broadcasting, Inc. respects the intellectual property rights of others and expects its users to do the same. In accordance with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, the text of which may be found on the U.S. Copyright Office website at <http://www.copyright.gov/legislation/dmca.pdf>, Cameron Broadcasting, Inc. will respond expeditiously to claims of copyright infringement. If you believe that your work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, you should send written notification thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, to our Designated Agent, who can be reached as follows:

By mail:

C. Jaeger
Cameron Broadcasting
1615 Orange Tree Lane, Suite 102
Redlands, CA 92374

Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 512(c), to be effective, the Notification must include the following:

- (i) A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
- (ii) Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.
- (iii) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit Cameron Broadcasting to locate the material.
- (iv) Information reasonably sufficient to permit Cameron Broadcasting to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an email address.
- (v) A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.
- (vi) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

This process only relates to reporting a claim of copyright infringement. Messages related to other matters will not receive a response through this process.
