

One Flag. One Country. KFLG Country.

Facility

94.7 FM (plus 95.9 in Laughlin/Bullhead, and 106.7 in Kingman) Located at Crossman Peak in Arizona.

Audience

Active, affluent adults in the prime 25-64 consumer demographic. Audience of Mohave County's largest and most loyal listeners comprised of executives, tourists, snowbirds, professionals, students and many others. #1 Country in last 7 Nielsen ratings (formerly Arbitron)!

Music

The Tri-State's first and most powerful Heritage Country station for more than 28 years. KFLG plays today's country hits sprinkled with some reccurents and classic hits. It's a carefully researched music mix that hits at the heart of the Tri-State's adult population.

Personalities

The KFLG live and local hosts as well as our other program mixes of live and local programming, combined with the After Midnight Show on weeknights, make for a great country weekly lineup!

Promotion

Exciting and unique on-air promotions are designed to keep our loyal listeners involved daily with the station personalities and receptive to your well-placed messages. Strong promotions attract large audiences of listeners as the Arbitron ratings bear out and our event photos illustrate so well.

Advertising

KFLG has historically been actively involved with marketing to the thousands of Tri-State listeners in Bullhead City, Kingman, Laughlin, Lake Havasu, Needles, Parker, Henderson, Blythe, 29 Palms, and beyond - through newspaper ads, magazines, and billboards, and is proud of retaining the #1 status over the last decade. Our station vehicle is graphically wrapped and seen and recognized throughout the Tri-State area.

Community Involvement

KFLG is actively involved in the Tri-State's community projects that benefit the market and is a leader of public service events, fund raisers and community involvement.

Information and News

KFLG 94.7 delivers local news throughout the day reported by Bri Serna. Our newscasts include weather updates, sports, and other special community events and highlights. And our daily News You Can See online news edition is found on this station's website at www.kflg947.com.

KFLG Country listeners are the heart of the Tri-State's populace of Adults 25-64. KFLG has established itself as a "heritage" station in the Laughlin-Bullhead City-Lake Havasu-Kingman-Needles-Parker-Blyth markets for close to twenty-eight years. KFLG Country listeners comprise the core of the retail spending market, are financially viable and enjoy successful lifestyles and disposable incomes. And KFLG remains on top in Nielsen ratings for 25 years for Adults 12+.
